

MTSU Research Partnership!

The Stones River Watershed Association has had a long-standing partnership with Middle Tennessee State University and is excited to kick off our first Annual donation for funds dedicated to watershed research through new grants at MTSU.

This new opportunity will benefit the community, local students, and campus faculty, as well as help bring forth exciting projects to identify and address needs in the watershed. Stay tuned!

2021

Stones River
Watershed Association

